Fine Arts Renovation

Baker Architecture + Design
The existing classrooms were dark and uninviting. The lack of natural light along with an unorganized floor plan made the building inefficient and un-inspiring.

A. Existing Drama Classroom
B. Existing Music Classroom
C. Existing Fine Art Classroom
D. Existing Chorus Classroom
The existing exterior lacked a clear entry and a presence within the campus. A large portable building blocked the main view from the adjacent parking lot as well as the path to the Cafeteria Building to the north.

A. Existing view from the northeast
B. An existing portable building blocked the path to the cafeteria building
C. Existing South elevation
D. Existing entry to the Fine Art Classroom
The Music Classroom provides students and teachers with a large instrument storage closet and ample practice rooms. The classroom also opens onto the exterior stage for outdoor class time or performances.
